
CH30

MONTGOMERY GI BILL

Active duty members receive a monthly education benefit from the VA upon completion of their service. The leftover after tuition is theirs to keep

CH33

POST 9/11 GI BILL

After 90+ days of service post 9/10/01, service members will receive tuition coverage. The VA pays the school, and also provides a book stipend and a monthly allowance of up to $1086 for full time students.

CH31

VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION

Veterans with service-related disabilities qualify for job placement, tuition assistance and more. Cannot be used concurrently with other VA benefits. Disbursements go straight to the student.

CH35

DEPENDENT/SPOUSES

If a service member has died or suffered a disability, dependents & spouses are eligible for 36 months of tuition assistance. Dependents must be 18+; spouses have 10 years to use from DEA eligibility date.

CH1606

SELECTED RESERVE

Reserve members of any branch can receive up to $384/month for up to 36 months for college or a training program

CH1607

RESERVE ASSISTANCE (REAP)

*Cannot be used with other VA educational benefits
Scheduled to terminate November 2019*

Find out more information - www.va.gov/education
Apply for Your Benefits at VETS.gov

